

Program

Monday, 20 May 2013

Time	Conference Session			Room
0900–0945	Welcome to country Aunty Agnes Conference opening Simon Corbell MLA, ACT Attorney General Welcome address Dr Adam Tomison, Director, Australian Institute of Criminology			Ballroom
0945–1040	Keynote address 1 Leaving the life: Notes on desistance from serious repeat offending Professor Mark Halsey, Law School, Flinders University			Ballroom
1040–1100	Morning Tea			Ballroom foyer
1100–1240	Concurrent session 1a Early Intervention	Concurrent session 1b Custodial practice	Concurrent session 1c Best practice and measuring success	Concurrent session 1d Custody and transition
Room	Ballroom	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
1100–1130	Youth on track – An early intervention system for NSW Mr Gregory Benson, Mr Sean Cotter Juvenile Justice NSW, Department of Attorney General & Justice	Justice & Forensic Mental Health Network, Adolescent Health - Reception Assessment. Ms Helen Andriotis, Justice & Forensic Mental Health Network	Implementing a youth justice performance framework Laura Atwell, Principal Business Analyst, Youth Justice Performance and Reporting, Department of Justice and Attorney General, Qld	The lessons learnt from the Hobart Specialised Youth Justice Pilot Mr Stuart Oldfield, Department of Health and Human Services, Tas Victor Stojcevski, Magistrates Court, Department of Justice Tas Ms Lisa Cuatt, Save the Children Tasmania
1135–1205	Youth diversion the early intervention way; practice issues when working with young people at the time of first police contact Mr Horace Wansbrough, Youth Support + Advocacy Service (Vic)	A preventative framework for assessing and managing violence risks in a youth mental health service Dr Gennady Baksheev, Deakin University	Continuous improvement underpinned by AJJA Standards equals good practice for managing you people within the criminal justice system Mr Gary Crawford, Juvenile Justice NSW, Department of Attorney General and Justice	Save the Children's Program in Tasmania – Transition from Ashley Youth Detention Centre and Supporting Young People on Bail Ms Lisa Cuatt, Save the Children Tasmania
1210–1240	Early and Effective Relational Interventions for at Risk Children and Adolescents Ms Victoria Laughton, Mr Tony Waters, Victim Support Service Inc Mr Leigh Garrett, OARS Community Transitions and Centre for Restorative Justice	Balancing Positive Client Outcomes with Safety and Security: The Establishment of the SERT at YJCS Mr Ian Lanyon, Department of Human Services VIC Mr Simon Brown-Greaves, FBG Group	Applying a critical best practice research approach to juvenile justice Dr Brian Stout, University of Western Sydney	New Zealand Youth Justice Residences: A multi-agency team approach Mr Grant Bennett, Child Youth and Family, Ministry of Social Development, NZ Ken McIntosh, Principal, Central Regional Health School, NZ
1240–1330	Lunch			Ballroom foyer
1330–1425	Keynote address 2 From little things, big things grow: Emerging Themes for Youth Justice in the South Pacific Judge Andrew Becroft, Principal Youth Court Judge of New Zealand			Ballroom
1425–1520	Keynote address Crime Control, Politics and Policy Production – Critical Reflections on the Demonisation of Indigenous Youth Mr Juan Tauri, Lecturer, School of Justice, Faculty of Law, Queensland University of Technology			Ballroom
1520–1545	Afternoon Tea			Ballroom foyer

1545–1725	Concurrent session 2a Alcohol and other drugs	Concurrent session 2b Policy and practice	Concurrent session 2c Engagement and collaboration	Concurrent session 2d Assessment
Room	Ballroom	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
1545–1615	Working effectively with young offenders who are dealing with AOD issues Ms Katherine McLachlan, Foundation for Alcohol Research and Education	Three dogmas of juvenile justice policy in Australia Dr Lorana Bartels, University of Canberra	Voices from the inside: Good practice for engaging young people in policy, program and service development within the criminal justice system Ms Stephanie Martin, Ms Annie Smith, McCreary Centre Society, Canada	Client assessment in youth justice: Outcome measurement Professor Andrew Day, Dr Sharon Casey, Deakin University
1620–1650	Innovative Alcohol and Other Drug responses in a youth justice population Mr Peter Wearne, Youth Support + Advocacy Service, Vic	Bail and remand for young people in Australia Dr Kelly Richards, Queensland University of Technology Ms Lauren Renshaw, Australian Institute of Criminology	What do we do? What do we need to know? How are the young people better off? – Improving collaborative outcomes through youth development approaches and with strong network partnerships Anita Balhorn, Hazel Audain, Ivita Health Services, NZ Raquel Amadei Barbiellini, Waitemata District Health Board, NZ	Assessing psychological maturity in juvenile offenders Dr Sharon Casey, Deakin University
1655–1725	Supporting youth with FASD who are in conflict with the law Maya Peled, McCreary Centre Society, Canada	Thinking Outside—improving responses to children who experience remand Ms Julie Edwards, Jesuit Social Services	Indications of group intervention effectiveness with South Australian young offenders Ms Louisa Hackett, Department for Communities and Social Inclusion	The Young Offender Risk Identification Assessment: The development and trial of a 'screening out' tool for use by youth justice officers on young offenders Dr Natalie Gately, Edith Cowan University

1725–1900 Evening Reception Ballroom foyer

Tuesday, 21 May 2013

Time	Conference Session	Room
0830–0900	Registration opens	Ballroom foyer
0900–0930	Day 2 opening Dr Mark Collis, Chair, Australasian Juvenile Justice Administrators	Ballroom
0930–1025	Keynote address The Processing of Youth and the Sentencing of Young Offenders in a Federal System: Challenges and successes in the recent Canadian experience Dr Raymond R Corrado, Simon Fraser University	Ballroom

1025–1045 Morning Tea Ballroom foyer

1045–1225	Concurrent session 3a Indigenous young people	Concurrent session 3b Young women	Concurrent session 3c Working with young people	Concurrent session 3d Bail and remand
Room	Ballroom	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
1045–1115	Remote location, traditional lifestyle: protecting Indigenous youth from entering the criminal justice system Ms Ruth Brebner, Solicitor for NT, Department of the Attorney General and Justice	Recent findings on young people under youth justice supervision: focus on girls and young women Ms Arianne Schlumpp, Ms Rhiannon Kelly, Child Welfare and Prisoner Health Unit, Australian Institute of Health and Welfare	Promising practice for reducing youths' gang involvement Anna Alexander, PLEA Community Services Society of BC Maya Peled, McCreary Centre Society, Canada	Bail: The secret to reducing youth incarceration Magistrate Paul Mulroney, Children's Court of NSW
1120–1150	Valuing Aboriginal community views: applying principles of cultural safety, competency and appropriateness in youth justice conferencing in NSW Dr Loretta Kelly, Gnibi College of Indigenous Australian People, Southern Cross Uni	Exploring Gender Differences in the Order Details and Risk Profiles of Young Offenders Ms Jaime Young, Deakin University	Freestyle Street Art – Banyule City Council Youth Service Leonie Farrell, Jessica Sayers, Banyule City Council	Looking behind the rise in juvenile remands in NSW Emeritus Professor David Brown, University of NSW
1155–1225	Who's listening when we talk? Mr Trevor Kennedy, Mr Craig Biles, NSW Juvenile Justice, Department of Attorney General & Justice	Changing trajectories of offending and reoffending for young women in British Columbia, Canada Annie Smith, McCreary Centre Society, Canada	Analysis of worker skills in youth probation Ms Phillipa Evans, Associate Professor Chris Trotter, Monash University	After Hours Bail Support Service evaluation Dr Mark Collis, Youth Services, ACT Government Ms Ronia McDade, Youth Justice Case Management, ACT Government

1225–1310 Lunch Ballroom foyer

1310–1410	Keynote address Cultural Competence in Forensic Settings – what issues continue to impact? Dr Tracy Westerman, Managing Director, Indigenous Psychological Services	Ballroom
1410–1505	Keynote address Young women and crime Professor Kerry Carrington, Head, School of Justice, Faculty of Law, Queensland University of Technology	Ballroom

1505–1525 Afternoon Tea				Ballroom foyer
1525–1720	Concurrent session 4a Indigenous young people	Concurrent session 4b Bridging the gap between young people and institutions	Concurrent session 4c Youth Justice – changing custodial programs	Concurrent session 4d Symposium
Room	Ballroom	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room (48)
1525–1550	Aboriginal Next Steps: A British Columbian community based youth crime reduction project Ms Stephanie Martin, McCreary Centre Society, Canada	Racial profiling, police accountability and the walking alongside program Ms Chantelle Higgs, Flemington Kensington Community Legal Centre	Tough Justice or rough justice? An examination of new directions in youth justice in Queensland Associate Professor Terry Hutchinson, Dr Kelly Richards, Queensland University of Technology	Family and Community-based interventions in NSW Juvenile Justice Chair – Dr Eric Heller, Juvenile Justice NSW Intensive supervision program
1555–1620	Justice Reinvestment: Addressing the Overrepresentation of Aboriginal Young People in the NSW Criminal Justice System Ms Sarah Hopkins, Alistair Ferguson, Justice Reinvestment for Aboriginal Young People Campaign	From Sudan to the Suburbs Mr Warren Eames, Youth Support + Advocacy Service, Vic	Implementing youth bootcamps in Queensland Steve Armitage, Youth Justice Services, Department of Justice and Attorney-General	Dr Michael Szyjan, Juvenile Justice NSW The family inclusion program Dr Ian Nisbet, Forensic Mental Health Program, Juvenile Justice NSW The ANTS Program – A model for working with young offenders and their families Associate Professor Chris Trotter, Monash University
1625–1650	It seems to work: Lessons from evaluating Indigenous youth justice programs Mr Matthew Willis, Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Responses, Australian Institute of Criminology	Cop that: Bridging the gap between young people and Law enforcement officers Jess Moyle, Dean Barnett, Joshua Gilligan, Youth Reference Group, Youth Affairs Council of Victoria	The 2010 reforms of the New Zealand youth justice system: From progressive to punitive? Dr Nessa Lynch, Victoria University of Wellington, NZ
1655–1720	Strategies to increase the cultural integrity of court processes for Aboriginal young people and their families Mr Jared Sharp, North Australian Aboriginal Justice Agency	Smart with the Heart Youth Offender Model Ms Cherie Tuapiki, Diamond Dynamics, New Zealand	What worked, what didn't and what don't we know? The New Zealand experience using the "What works" literature as a guide to establishing an intensive programme for serious young offenders Mr Christopher Polaschek, Child Youth and Family, New Zealand

Wednesday, 22 May 2013

Time	Conference Session		Room
0830–0900	Registration opens		Level one gallery
0900–1030	Concurrent session 5a	Concurrent session 5b Workshop Workshop	Concurrent session 5c Workshop
Room	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
0900–0930	Restorative justice as a better practice for managing the need for rehabilitation in response to youth offending Dr Tony Foley, ANU College of Law	Collaborative case management – collaborating to achieve best practice Steve Armitage, Youth Justice Services, Department of Justice and Attorney-General, Queensland	Early and Effective Relational Interventions for At Risk Children and Adolescents Ms Victoria Laughton, Research and Advocacy Officer, Victim Support Services Inc, Mr Tony Waters, Chief Executive, Victim Support Service Inc. Mr Leigh Garrett, Chief Executive Officer, OARS Community Transitions, Australia and Chief Executive Officer of the Centre for Restorative Justice
0930–1000	Getting beyond "just" talk: Making thinking visible in community conferencing Ms Jane Douglas, Children and Youth Services, Department of Health and Human Services
1000–1030	Community Integration Team – Assisting young people to access health services in the community on release from custody Mr Christopher Selvey, Justice & Forensic Mental Health Network
1030–1050	Morning Tea		Level one gallery

1050–1220	Concurrent session 6a	Concurrent session 6b Workshop	Concurrent session 6c Workshop
Room	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
1050–1120	Are current correctional programs addressing the needs of young women in Victorian prisons? Mrs Ruth Klein, Criminal Justice Research Consortium, Monash University	Evaluating initiatives that aim to prevent or respond to youth offending Mr Anthony Morgan, Principal Research Analyst, Australian Institute of Criminology	Oral language competence and vulnerability in early life Associate Professor Pamela Snow, School of Psychology and Psychiatry, Monash University
1120–1150	Unspeakingly present: the (un)acknowledgement of diverse sexuality and gender human rights in Australian youth justice systems Dr Kelly Richards, Dr Angela Dwyer, Queensland University of Technology	Dr Rick Brown, Deputy Director Research, Australian Institute of Criminology	Professor Martine Powell, School of Psychology, Deakin University
1150–1220	Young cybercriminals: pathways and potential prevention and response strategies Dr Alice Hutchings, Australian Institute of Criminology
1220–1300	Lunch		Level one gallery
1340–1430	Concurrent session 7a	Concurrent session 7b	Concurrent session 7c
Room	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
1300–1330	Thinking outside the classroom: Creating new environments for young people engaged in the Youth Justice System to successfully gain access to education Miss Harriet Horsfall, Brisbane Youth Service	The health of young people appearing in the NSW Children's Court Ms Toni Anderson, Justice and Forensic Mental Health Network	Exploring the links between alternative education programs and crime prevention – A case study in Glebe Mr John Maynard, City of Sydney
1340–1430	Concurrent session 8a Symposia	Concurrent session 8b Workshop	Concurrent session 8c Criminal Responsibility
Room	Murray Room	Fitzroy Room	Derwent Room
1340–1410	The impact of maltreatment on cognitive and language development: What does early neurobiological adversity mean for youth justice workers? Chair: Dr Sara McLean, Australian Centre for Child Protection, SA What impact does Foetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders have on the juvenile Justice System Samantha Parkinson, Australian Centre for Child Protection How does child maltreatment affect the developing brain and what does this mean for working with young people's behaviour? Sara McLean, Australian Centre for Child Protection Maltreatment and the development of oral language competence: What do youth justice workers need to know? Associate Professor Pamela Snow, Monash University	Adolescent violence in the home – improving a coordinated response Ms Jo Howard, Manager, Peninsula Health Community Health, Victoria	The criminal responsibility of children and their parents Mr James McCue, Edith Cowan University
1410–1440			Consequences of increasing the age of criminal responsibility: Case of Thai children under 12 in conflict with the law Dr Kattiya Retanadilok, Ministry of Justice, Thailand
1440–1510			Raising the age of criminal responsibility - options for reform in Australia Mr Michael Livingstone, Jesuit Social Services
1510–1530	Afternoon tea and closing		Level one gallery